

Power Boosters

Description

These power boosters are designed to engage with different levels of thinking and capabilities. We want children to learn through engagement and association, and these power boosters provide children with these opportunities. Our stories are created with many different solutions so children can explore and create their own learning paths.

Date Created

August 1, 2022

Author

nstyles11